

Uniform Policy

Whilst in the clinical environment you are required to wear a clean uniform, to comply with Health and Safety regulations and for hygiene purposes. Changing facilities and lockers for students may be available at each of the practice placements; you are reminded not to wear your uniform outside the hospital grounds.

You will be provided with a name badge and personal radiation monitoring devices that must be worn and always displayed.

As a student you are expected to wear a specific uniform, which is available from the Department. All students are required to adhere to the Uniform policies of the Centre for Allied Health, St George's University of London, in addition to the local Trust policy at the site of placement.
